East Shepard Industrial, Calgary, Alberta

Established 20 years ago and currently owned by the present proprietor, this industrial bakery boasts a solid reputation. Spanning 2,025 sq ft of operational space (not including a storage mezzanine), the bakery employs a team of 5 staff members. It specializes in a wide range of breads and cakes, consistently serving an established customer base across the city. The front of the premises offers the potential to open a retail store, providing an additional revenue stream. Moreover, there is a significant opportunity for growth, especially for someone with a visionary approach to expansion.

Built in 2006
